The existence of COVID-19 was identified in mainland China in December 2019 and subsequently declared a 'Public Health Emergency of International Concern' by the World Health Organisation ('WHO') in January 2020. Consequent to the spread of the outbreak globally, causing disruption to businesses and economic activity, COVID-19 was characterised as a pandemic by the WHO on 11 March 2020.

The outbreak and measures taken in response are considered by ASI to be non-adjusting events indicative of conditions that arose after the reporting period.

ASI's operations are able to be conducted in a remote or virtual environment and accordingly can be insulated from the social impacts of COVID-19. As of the date of preparation of this financial report the directors are not aware of the existence of significant adverse financial impacts of COVID-19. However, the outbreak will be expected to have significant future macroeconomic impact which in turn may affect ASI's operations, the results thereof, and ASI's state of affairs in years subsequent to 31 December 2019.

7. Members' guarantee

The Company is limited by guarantee. Every member of the Company has a liability to contribute towards deficiencies in the event of the winding up of the Company, to the extent of AUD10 per member. Notes to the Financial Statements for Year Ended 31 December 2019

1 Corporate Information

The financial report is for the entity Aluminium Stewardship Initiative Ltd ('ASI') as an individual entity. ASI is a not-for-profit public company limited by guarantee, incorporated and domiciled in Australia.

The principal activities of the company for the year ended 31 December 2019 were to work with members and stakeholders under the ASI governance model to implement and grow the ASI certification program.

The company is a registered charity with the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profit Commission and is exempt from income tax.

The financial report was approved by the directors as of the date of the directors' declaration.

2 Basis of Preparation and Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Preparation

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards - Reduced Disclosure requirements and the requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (ACNC Act).

The financial report has been prepared on an accruals basis and is based on historical cost. Cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets. Unless otherwise indicated, all amounts are presented in Australian dollars, the company's functional currency.

Significant accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and are consistent with prior reporting periods unless otherwise stated.

(b) Changes in Accounting Policies, Accounting Standards and Interpretations

(i) Changes in accounting policy and disclosures

In the current year, ASI has adopted all of the new and revised standards and interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (the AASB) that are relevant to its operations and effective for the current annual reporting period. The adoption of these new and revised Standards and Interpretations has not resulted in any significant changes to any of the company's accounting policies.

AASB 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and AASB 1058 Income of Not-for-Profit Entities

The company has applied AASB 15 and AASB 1058 using the modified retrospective (cumulative catch-up) method which means the comparative information has not been restated and continues to be reported under previous standards and interpretations. The company has assessed that no significant impact has arisen in respect of the timing of revenue recognition upon adoption of these accounting standards, and accordingly no adjustments to accumulated funds as at 1 January 2019.

AASB 16 Leases

AASB 16 became effective as of 1 January 2019. The Standard requires lessees to initially recognise a lease liability for the obligation to make lease payments and a right-of-use asset for the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term. The company currently has no in-scope operating leases and accordingly there has been no financial impact on the adoption of the Standard.

(ii) Accounting standards and interpretations issued but not yet effective at 31 December 2019

The following standards and interpretations have been issued at the reporting date but are not yet effective.

(c) Revenue

Revenue recognition policy for revenue from contracts with customers (AASB 15)

AASB 15 requires revenue to be recognised when control of a promised good or service is passed to the customer at an amount which reflects the expected consideration. Revenue is recognised by applying a five-step model as follows:

- 1: Identify the contract with the customer
- 2: Identify the performance obligations
- 3: Determine the transaction price
- 4: Allocate the transaction price and
- 5: Recognise revenue when a performance obligation is satisfied

Notes to the Financial Statements (continued) for Year Ended 31 December 2019

Rendering of services

The company does not sell goods. Generally the timing of the payment for rendering of services corresponds closely to the timing of satisfaction of the performance obligations, however if there is a difference, it will result in the recognition of a receivable, contract asset or contract liability.

Revenue recognition policy for revenue streams which do not have sufficiently specific performance obligations (AASB 1058)

As convenor of the forum of members, the company provides its membership base with access to services such as standards development, learning programs, multi-stakeholder dialogue, broad community networking and, in relation to members seeking certification, to ASI accredited auditors. Membership provides members with the opportunity to participate in the forum. The Directors believe that the company's offering represents a non-specific performance obligation, reflecting the opportunity that members avail themselves of, depending on their goals and objectives. Given non-specificity, AASB 15 defers not-for-profit entities to consider the applicability of AASB 1058 which deals with situations where ASI does not have to perform an obligation in response to the entitlement to income. Accordingly, the company continues to recognise revenue from the provision of membership subscriptions upon receipt of payment. Member subscription invoices that relate to future periods at year end are recognised on the statement of financial position as revenue in advance.

(d) Financial instruments

Recognition and initial measurement

Financial instruments, incorporating financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

The company's financial instruments are initially classified as 'at fair value through profit or loss' and related transaction costs are expensed immediately.

Classification

The company's financial assets fall into the following categories: held-to-maturity investments (primarily cash and equivalents with an original maturity of three months or less), and loans and receivables. Accordingly, they are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

Financial liabilities comprise trade and other payables, also recognised at amortised cost.

Impairment

At each reporting date, the company assesses whether there is objective evidence that a financial instrument has been impaired. Impairment of financial assets is recognised on an expected credit loss (ECL) basis.

Impairment of trade receivables has been determined using the simplified approach in AASB 9 which uses an estimation of lifetime expected credit losses. The company has determined the probability of non-payment of receivables and multiplied this by the amount of the expected loss arising from default. The amount of any impairment is recorded in a separate allowance account with the loss being recognised in surplus or deficit. Once the receivable is determined to be uncollectable then the gross carrying amount is written off against the associated allowance.

Derecognition

Financial assets are derecognised where the contractual rights to receive cash flows have expired or the asset is transferred to another party whereby the entity no longer has any significant continuing involvement in the risks and benefits associated with the asset. Financial liabilities are derecognised where the related obligations are either discharged, cancelled or expire.

Fair value estimation

Unless otherwise disclosed in the notes to the financial statements, the carrying amount of the company's financial instruments approximates their fair value.

(e) Intangibles

Developed software is capitalised as an asset only when it is anticipated to deliver future reliably measurable economic benefits. The online assurance platform is such an asset. It has a finite life and is carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and impairment losses. The asset has an estimated useful life of three years.

(f) Impairment of non-financial assets

At the end of each reporting period the company determines whether there is any evidence of an impairment indicator for non-financial assets. Where an indicator exists the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated. Where the estimated recoverable amount of the asset is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised in surplus or deficit.

(g) Employee entitlements

(i) Short-term employee benefit obligations

Liabilities arising in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave and any other employee benefits expected to be settled within twelve months of the reporting date are measured at their nominal amounts based on remuneration rates which are expected to be paid when the liability is settled. The expected cost of short-term employee benefits in the form of compensated absences such as annual leave is recognised in the provision for employee benefits. All other short-term employee benefit obligations are presented as payables.

(ii) Long-term employee benefit obligations

Liabilities arising in respect of long service leave which is not expected to be settled within twelve months of the reporting date are measured at the present value of the estimated future cash outflow to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the reporting date.

Employee benefit obligations are presented as current liabilities if the entity does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least twelve months after the reporting date, regardless of when the actual settlement is expected to occur.

(h) Goods and services tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and purchased assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Tax Office. In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables in the statement of financial position are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are presented in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis, except for the GST component of investing and financing activities, which are disclosed as operating cash flows.

(i) Comparatives

Where necessary, comparative information has been reclassified and repositioned for consistency with current year disclosures.

3 Significant Accounting Judgements and Estimates

The directors make judgements and estimates in preparing the financial statements regarding assumptions about current and future events affecting transactions and balances. These judgements and estimates are based on the best information available at the time of preparing the financial statements, however as additional information is known then the actual results may differ from the estimates.

The significant judgements and estimates made are described below:

- On the basis of the judgement that the member subscription revenue stream does not have sufficiently specific performance obligations against which subscriptions are matched over time, this revenue is recognised upon receipt.
- The rate of amortisation rate of the online assurance platform is judged to be comparable to industry amortisation rates.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the company in accordance with the ACNC Act and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements and the ACNC Act, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of the financial report.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial report is located at the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board website at: <http://www.auasb.gov.au/Home.aspx>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.
